Asha Sharma, State Policy Manager, Leadership Counsel for Justice and Accountability

Asha Sharma is the State Policy Manager at Leadership Counsel for Justice and Accountability, where she develops and manages state policy campaigns driven by community needs and priorities. She has an extensive background in environmental justice, organizing, and agricultural and climate science. She holds a Master of Science from UC Davis in International Agricultural Development with a concentration in soil science.